- Ⓢ The ACT is universally accepted for college admission. You must take the ACT with writing in order for most colleges to accept it in lieu of the SAT.
- Ⓢ The Act is curriculum-based with questions directly relating to lessons learned in high school courses in English, Mathematics, and Science.
- Ⓢ The ACT also provides test takers with an Interest Inventory that provides valuable information for career and educational planning.
- Ⓢ Many colleges will accept the ACT with writing in lieu of the SAT and two SAT Subject tests.
 - Therefore 1 ACT= 1 SAT+2 SAT Subject Test.

Juniors:

- Ⓢ Consider taking the ACT with writing in April and/or June.

Seniors:

- Ⓢ Consider takine the ACT with writing in September and/or October and/or December. December is the last test date a senior may sit for in order to be considered for February College Application deadlines.

Standardized Test Scores:

- Ⓢ Students must request their ACT scores be submitted to the college/university from www.act.org. We DO NOT send standardized test scores to colleges.
