Sophomores:

- Are there any classes that you did very well in? Consider taking an SAT Subject test in that subject in May or June. You may take more than one SAT Subject test in one test sitting.

Juniors:

- Are there any classes that you did very well in? Consider taking an SAT Subject test in that subject in May.
- You should begin to take the SAT in May and/or June of your Junior Year.
- If you feel you are ready to take the SAT prior to May or June, please contact your guidance counselor.

Seniors:

- If you have not completed your testing in your Junior Year, you should be taking the October and/or November and/or December test.
- FYI: December is the last SAT a senior may take in order to be considered for February Application Deadlines.

Standardized Test Scores:

- Students must request their SAT and SAT Subject Tests scores be submitted to the college/university from www.collegeboard.com. We DO NOT send standardized test scores to colleges.
