

Ezra Cornell

Book

September 25th 1826

Price one dollar

This is the first book I ever owned It was offered by a pedler at my Father's house in Delkayton Madison Co. N.Y.

I persuaded my Mother to buy it for me. She had no money, and to oblige me she picked up paper rags about the house to make up the price of it. I read the book with interest, but when Jackson was a candidate in 1828 for the Presidency I opposed him and voted for Adams. I favored a protective tariff
